

RASPBERRY ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE REHABILITATION

WHAT'S HAPPENING NOW?

As of August 17, 2006

Raspberry light, "the showplace of the Apostles," is being rehabilitated this 2006 season. Plans to open the lighthouse for tours of the 1920's Keeper's residence will occur in the summer of 2007. The following pictures show you some of the activities taking place this summer.

Here's what's happening now!

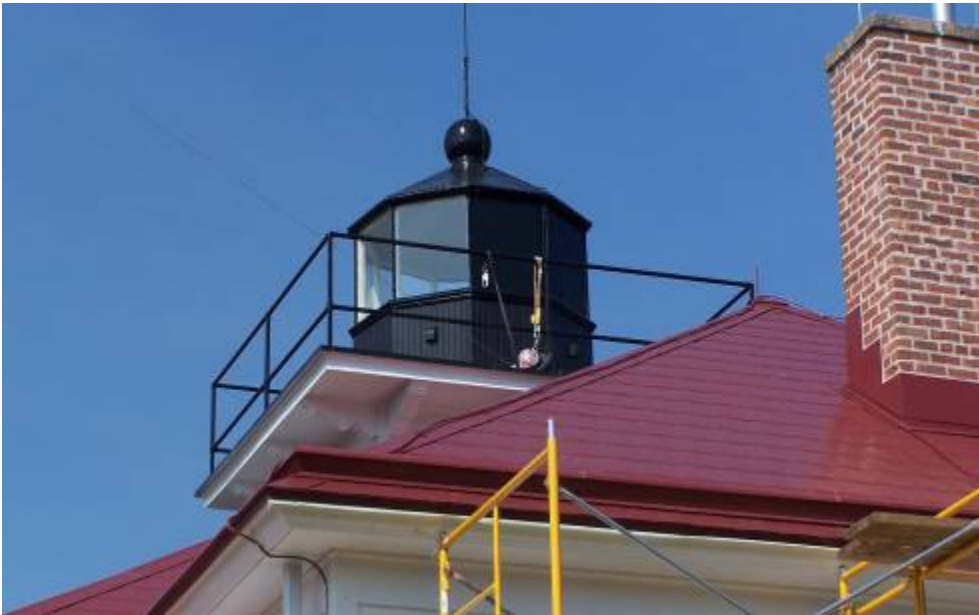

The new roof gleams in the sunlight!

Front porch work.

Siding continues to be primed and painted.

The tower is just about finished.

Old brick that was replaced by the new is leaving the island!

Plastering on stilts.

Would you rather use a ladder?

Sanding the floors.

Then painting the floors.

A transformation is taking place!

WATCH FOR THE NEXT UPDATE SOON!
